

Richard Sinclair Takes Lovely Bride Saturday

Of interest to the many friends of Mr. Richard Sinclair was his marriage in First Methodist church at four o'clock Saturday afternoon to Miss Mabel McCann, of Van Nuys. Rev. C. E. Ruckman officiated at the double ring ceremony performed in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the principals.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Roberta Hastings played the organ accompaniment for William Johnson, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The beautiful bride was radiant in an egg shell pink gown and picture hat. She carried a formal bouquet of white roses and bouvardia. Mrs. John Kennedy, of Burbank, as matron of honor, wore an aqua gown with flower hat and a corsage of gardenias. William Fackner, of Anaheim, attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Jack Garland and Eddie Findley.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors, where wedding cake and punch were served at candle-lighted tables.

Mrs. W. J. Carr, foster mother of the bride, received in a pink ensemble with floral hat and gardenias and Mrs. Sinclair attended in a black and white gown complemented with a corsage of pink carnations.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. E. A. Anderson, Miss Ella Anderson and Laurence Horn, all of Santa Monica; Mrs. William Johnston and son Alan, of Van Nuys; Messrs. and Mmes. E. J. Wightman and Jean Copeland, Long Beach and H. Wood, Los Angeles.

Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair left for a honeymoon trip to the Sequoias. They will establish their home in Van Nuys.
